

Hí,

My name is Joy Czubiak. I am the Baby & Me facilitator at Temple Adat Elohim. For the past 37 years, I have been a teacher in Jewish preschools, specializing in Baby and Me classes. For the last 16 years, I have been teaching at Temple Adat Elohim. I graduated from California State Northridge with a degree in graphic design and Early Childhood Education.

I love having the opportunity to teach classes devoted to spending precious time together with you and your child. It is a chance to meet and bond with new parents each week. We have discussions on various topics relating to your child in our infant classes. We create something beautiful to take home each week in our toddler class. We also have puppet time where we learn new songs and so much more in a Jewish environment! I make each class a memorable experience for both the parent and child.

On a more personal note, I have 2 children. My daughter Samantha is 27 and my son, Eric is 24. I am so lucky to have a wonderful husband of 29 years, Bob.

I look forward to sharing my own experiences with you and being a part of your child's beginning education.

I look forward to meeting you and your little one/ones this year.

Ms. Joy
