

Rosh Hashanah

2023 | 5784

Rabbi Barry Diamond · Cantor David Shukiar

On behalf of Temple Adat Elohim, we extend a warm welcome to our High Holy Day services. We are so glad you are here to join us in this time of reflection, introspection, and renewal.

The High Holy Days are a sacred time in the Jewish calendar, when we come together to ask for forgiveness, make amends, and start fresh. They are also a time to celebrate the creation of the world and our own potential for goodness.

Whatever your level of experience or familiarity with Judaism, we are all welcome here; and we hope you will find a sense of peace and belonging in our community.

May these Days of Awe touch our hearts and inspire us to live a life of kindness, compassion, and forgiveness.

Wishing you a Shana Tova,

Rabbi Barry Diamond
Cantor David Shukiar
